In doing so, Mr. Kistianyuk showed himself to be a thorough professional with broad knowledge and sound legal skills. He worked hard to provide valuable advice to the UWC. By virtue of the personal contributions made through his work, he has helped improve UWC's global efforts to become more effective and productive in advancing the interests of Ukraine and Ukrainians around the world.

In his work for the UWC, Mr. Kistianyuk is actively involved in the following areas: (a) human rights; (b) international law; (c) class actions; and (d) case law of the European Court of Human Rights; and other courts.

He also performed the following types of work for the UWC: (a) research and preparation of legal arguments; (b) preparation of various appeals to governmental and non-governmental institutions in Ukraine; (c) context-specific legal assessments; and (d) drafting of proposed legislative amendments.

In conclusion, Mr. Kistianyuk is a competent and diligent worker with a strong interest in the aforementioned areas of law. I can recommend him as a valuable asset to any company or organization seeking the necessary skills and drive to help it achieve its goals.
